

Nordiq Alberta

Harassment

Harassment, Abuse, and Anti-Bullying

NA's Harassment Policy is given effect at the provincial level and NA member organizations (i.e. clubs) are required to implement this policy at the provincial level. If you suspect an instance of harassment, bullying, abuse or discrimination, the policy outlines complaint procedures.

Concerned about a potential incident of abuse, harassment, bullying or discrimination? Contact:

Canadian Sport Helpline: 1-888-83-SPORT (77678), info@abuse-free-sport.ca, <http://abuse-free-sport.ca/en/>,

If recommended, contact:

Nordiq Canada's independent third-party complaint receiver, Mr. Brian Ward:
brianward@globalserve.net.

Resources:

What is harassment and abuse in sport? <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ZW1D9SVTOJE>

Harassment in Sport - Blog Series – CCES Blog

Bullying has no place in sport – CCES Blog

Harassment in Sport Blog Series \(Coach Resources\) – Coaching Association of Canada

Respect in Sport – Respect Group

Canadian Centre for Child Protection – Resources and Education